PRESENTS

the ART of FREEDOM

When Garland Spore, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Scott Spore (a Board member of OneVoiceHome), learned of the reality of sex trafficking of young girls her own age in our area, she became determined to help make a difference. Her vision of an art show to raise funds for this cause has grown into The Art of Freedom.

The Art of Freedom is a vital event that is now the signature fundraising event for OneVoiceHome. OneVoiceHome is a Faith Based, State Licensed, Therapeutic Residential Treatment Center for Domestic Minor Sex Trafficking Survivors. OVH will serve young girls ages 12 to 18. They will experience individualized and holistic care. Their healing journey will include emotional, mental, spiritual, educational, and physical tools for them to find individual success!

November 9, 2019

Mckenzie-Merket Alumni Center, Texas Tech University 17th & University | Lubbock, Texas 79409

6:30 p.m. – 9:30 p.m.

FREE ADMISSION

With over 79,000 children being sexually exploited across our state, the need for safe homes and healing is a desperate one. Last year OneVoiceHome purchased a 50+ acre property outside of Lubbock! With our new staff on board and programming in development, we are preparing for our Texas State Licensing. This means we must be preparing the campus for necessary renovations. While the size of the campus is ideal for operations, it is a challenging undertaking. With your sponsorship commitment, you help us fight human trafficking and extend grace, healing and restoration to our girls.

We NEED you on our team!

Stand up! Speak out! Change Lives!
